SCOPE

This GUI module displays information about the HRE application and it's licence conditions.

LOOK AND FEEL

The window has 3 sections:

- Heading section with:
 - the window name
 - window close icon
- Topic section that provides information on the version of HRE installed, with its Release date.
Particular information about HRE s included, in:
 - License detail.
 - Software developer acknowledgements.
- Lower section of the window includes:
 - a 'Close' button to 'close' this window (same action as the X icon in the window Heading section), returning focus to the main User Interface.

AboutHRE main window - Mockup

The embedded text in the Licences scrollbar text panel, reads:

History Research Environment (HRE) is a community project to create a free open source platform for recording a wide range of genealogical, historical and social research. The development community is supported by a not-for-profit company, History Research Environment Limited, limited by guarantee and registered under the laws of England and Wales.

All code developed by HRE Ltd is copyright the individual developers, and is released under the GNU Affero General Public License (GNU AGPL) <https://www.gnu.org/licenses/agpl-3.0.en.html>.

For further details, see http://hrewiki.org/index.php?title=Why_have_we_chosen_these_licences%3F.

Reuse of the HRE software is permitted only under the terms of the license. Using the HRE software or any derivative of the software to offer a service over the internet is strictly prohibited.

A section below then includes acknowledgement of the Software Developers. Text in the scrollable text box is currently as follows:

The History Research Environment software development has only resulted from the contribution of a growing number of people who have volunteered their time and skills to the project. In grateful acknowledgement of their efforts, we recognize:

Robin Lamacraft
Don Ferguson
Rod Thompson
Lynn McLaughlin

This is one of the windows in the HRE GUI that has a fixed size. User configuration is not available.
